LOOK OUT

It's time to see and be seen with the latest line from Tag Heuer. The premium watch maker is branching out with a sexy, well-made collection of eyewear called Tag Heuer Eyewear. A combination of high-tech materials, integrated design, and grade-A comfort, these glasses protect against the sun and keep you looking hot in the process. Ultralight, with a shock-resistant shield and an adjustable nose pad, they're expertly designed—all you have to do is wear them. Visit tagheuer.com/sportvision.

HAUTE LODGINGS

You shouldn't need an excuse to visit Napa Valley, but just in case you do, here's one: the brand-new Solage Hotel & Resort from Auberge. The 89-room resort features spacious cottage-style rooms and suites with a warm, sophisticated twist that's two parts welcoming hospitality, three parts comfort. The resort features a bar, casual restaurant, signature spa, and a 130-foot pool flanked by cabanas. And on the off chance that you experience the need to actually leave this delicious haven, complimentary cruiser bikes are available for trips into nearby Calistoga. Visit aubegeresorts.com.

SWEET SCENTS

These aren't your grandmother's drawer sachets—unless, that is, your grandmother was fond of sachets decorated with delicate Swarovski crystals and scented with wild roses and linden. Meet the new dressing in your dresser—delicious sachets from Gold 'N Dulcinea. There's even an option for the manly man: gray suede scented with tobacco, patchouli incense, sandalwood, clary sage, and yuzu. Something you never knew you wanted just became an absolute necessity. Visit goldndulcinea.com.

GET AWAY

We think of a visit to the Parker Palm Springs as a visit to the estate of an elegant and deliciously dotty old aunt. Each of the 144 guest rooms tells its own tale: 311 was Robert Downey's, and 308 was the one where Barbara forced Merv to tear down the walls so she would have more room. Outside there are two tennis courts (tennis whites required of course, darling), two Petanque courts, and croquet. And the five-star restaurant, Norma's, is home to the $1,000 omelet, packed with lobster and caviar, for those who, according to the hotel, "must eat couture, even when they're not wearing it." Where do we sign up? Visit theparkerpalmsprings.com.
