

MICHELLE OBAMA – AS ONLY HER GAY HAIRDRESSER KNOWS HER //
MARRIAGE EQUALITY'S JUST HALF THE BATTLE. NOW, FOR THE HONEYMOON

THE ADVOCATE

The Naked Truth

Twenty-two people of all shapes and sizes strip down, pose, and then spill their guts about what they love and hate about their bodies

ISSUE 1015
SEPTEMBER 23, 2008
$3.99 USA & CANADA | £2.99 UK

The Honeymoon Phase

Marriage is more than a lifetime commitment—it's the perfect excuse to take a romantic getaway. Whether you and your betrothed are looking for the hustle of city streets or the privacy of an island cabana, one of these holidays will suit your persuasion BY ADAM GRAHAM

EPICUREAN PARADISE

Napa Valley

Calistoga, Calif.'s Solage (www.solagecalistoga.com) is Napa Valley's latest hot spot. With the largest champagne list in the area, the hotel's restaurant, Solbar, is an ideal place for newlyweds to toast their nuptials. The simple but stylish 89-room resort feels relaxed and sexy, with young guests biking to the pool in bikinis, meandering to the spa in robes, or nibbling on fruit and toast poolside. The free bike rentals make exploring the town—prized for its healing spa waters—a breeze. Don't forget a visit to Copia, the nearby educational center devoted to winemaking and the culinary and visual arts (www.copia.org), where you can check out a myriad of herb, fruit, and vegetable gardens or the revolving cultural exhibits on food lore and history. →

RINGS: CHRISTOS GEORGHIOU/ISTOCK; SOLAGE: MATTHEW WILLMAN