Continental U.S. and Canada

THE RESORT CATEGORY SAW A SHAKE-UP IN 2011: Tennessee's culinary retreat, Blackberry Farm, rose from No. 12 to the winning spot, while 30 standout properties in the American West—including the perennial winner in the Inns category, Montana's Triple Creek Ranch—comprised half of the World's Best Resorts and Inns in the U.S. and Canada. The Large City Hotel list is once again topped by a Windy City skyscraper (the Peninsula Chicago has nabbed the No. 1 spot in the region a record four times), but among Small City Hotels, a New York property made a splashy debut: the new 86-room Crosby Street Hotel (No. 2) is the first Manhattan hotel to break into the list.
